FARM FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers for sale his well known HOMESTEAD, situa ed in Hampden 2½ miles from this city.—This is one of the best locations in the State, both for beauty of prospect and profit in farming. The farm contains from 90 to 100 acres, divided into woodland, pasturage, tillage and grass land; is in good condition, and as it has a variety of soil is well adapted to a mixed system of agriculture; and also having some of the earliest land on the River, it is especially fitted for raising early produce, which being so near market is one of the most profitable branches of farming.

This place is one of the few that have never been sold since the original purchase, but circumstances making it expedient, it is now offered for sale.

Despatches to the Evening Times.

Singular Conduct of a Party of Fenians.

NEW YORK, May 10.

The Herald's Valparaiso correspondence says:

The Spaniards have received an addition to their squadron, of one screw frigate, 60 guns, two corvettes, and one transport, the latter bringing large supplies of clothing and ordinance stores.

They also had in the squadron 1500 marines for shore duty.

The English residents of Santiago have confined the resolutions as those at Valparaiso against the conduct of the British Charge d'Affairs and Admiral in not preventing the bombardment.

The French have put in a claim for their losses.

The report of the Spanish Admiral is published, in which he says Commodore Rogers, after his efforts for a peaceable settlement of the difficulties were thwarted by Chili, commended his action as right, and said moderation and dignity were on the side of Spain.

The English Admiral said the insult offered by the Chilians in proposing a naval combat, was sufficient justification for the bombardment.

The Spanish Admiral also, says the Chilian Government opposed the removal of foreigners' property.

The World a special says the House Bank Committee are preparing a bill, intended to remedy the defects in the national banking law. It will also provide for the equalization of the currency among the States.

The Times' special Washington despatch says:

The citizens of Columbia, S. C., have appointed a committee to ascertain whether Gen. Sherman or Wade Hampton set fire to that city.

The Herald's special Washington despatch says:

It is believed that not less than 500 cows died in the District of Columbia, from the cattle disease. The disease is said to have come from Peru.

The 1st regiment Maryland colored troops returned home yesterday and made a handsome appearance. Whilst passing through the western section of the city a conflict occurred between some of the colored people following the returned soldiers, and a number of whites. Blows were exchanged, fire arms are reported to have been used, and several parties have been arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.

A special messenger arrived yesterday from Los Angelos bringing a despatch from the commander of Fort Grant to Gen. Manson, announcing that Fort Goodwin, Arizona, had been taken by two thousand Indians, and the garrison, numbering 124, were all massacred, with one exception, and the fort burned.

The man who escaped was out hunting at the time and witnessed the commotion at a distance. He saw the fort burning and heard the firing of guns during the fight, which lasted nearly an hour.

It is supposed the Indians gained admission to the fort under the pretext of entering a treaty of peace which General Manson had instructed the commander of the fort to make.

BOSTON, May 10.

At the iron foundry of Davis & Farnum in Waltham yesterday afternoon, a shell purchased for old iron burst, instantly killing Wm. H. Howard and two boys, also severely wounding Mr. Bean, foreman of the foundry, and a workman.

NEW YORK May 10.

Capt. McBlune, of the British schooner Wentworth, from Windsor, has arrived here, and reports that on the 2d inst. his vessel was seized by a party of 60 men off Menan, under command of Col. Kelly, who said they were Fenians. They scuttled the fishing craft they were in, and after keeping possession of the Wentworth about four hours, landed at a place called Brady's Mistake.

They acted very orderly, doing no damage to vessel or crew.

NEW YORK, May 10.

The Commercial says—

Stocks show more activity, with a general advance. On some stocks there is an attempt by the bulls to twist the bears. The tone of the market is firmer.

Governments firm but quiet. U. S sixes of 1881, rose ½. Second series 7 3-10 closed at 102¾.

Money very abundant. All indications point to a continuance of the prevailing ease.

Gold less active at 129¼.

Exchange quiet.

—A curious apparatus for propelling balloons through the air, has been devised by Mr. Butler, one of the members of the council of the Aeronautical Society in London. It consists of a pair of wings, operated from the car of the balloon, whose downward blow is calculated to strike with a force exceeding forty pounds, a power equivalent to an ascensive force of one thousand cubic feet of carburetted hydrogen. The action required is somewhat similar to that of rowing.

A lad in Springfield, the Republican claims, has the largest collection of postage stamps in that part of the State. It numbers over eight hundred, and includes those of Russia, Turkey, and most other countries in Europe.

AFTER THE BOMBARDMENT. A letter from an American officer at Valparaiso, written the day after the bombardment, says:

"The amount of personal property destroyed was upward of ten million dollars. The whole city was nearly deserted during the bombardment, the firemen only remaining. These firemen number some three thousand, and are divided into three divisions. They worked their engines from the time the conflagration commenced until it was subdued. They are brave young fellows and deserve much credit. There are among them the sons of the richest men in Chili, and they have a most complete organization, working from beginning to end by sound of the bugle. One division is dressed in white pants, red shirt and heavy leather hat; the second division wear red pants, black shirts and brass helmet cap; the third division, or relief, wear black pants and shirt, and military cap with red trimmings.

Several women who remained in the city during the bombardment were cut in two. The poor people would not believe that their city was to be attacked, even at the last moment.

Our fleet went in as soon as the Spaniards ceased fire, and sent sailors ashore to work the engines; and glad they were to get them, as the firemen were quite exhausted. When our tars got hold of the brakes they worked with a will, at the same time singing our national airs. They were in high glee. The fire is all out now, but smoking badly.

The other day I was ashore when a very singular announcement met my eyes. It read thus: 'The splendid and commodious frigates Leander and Julej will receive freight and passengers for any part of the world.'

This was intended as a slur upon the English Admiral, who has their utter detestation, while the Americans are 'mucho bueno.' During the whole fight our Minister, Gen. Kilpatrick, was riding on horseback through the town, encouraging the firemen. The Chilians cheered him wherever he went. He is an accomplished rider, speaks good Spanish, and is well liked. His residence is at Santiago, the capital of Chili."

THE WAY THEY DO BUSINESS IN NEW YORK. The owner of a first class house in Fulton avenue, New York, called upon the lady occupying the premises, on the 1st of February, and told her he would want them for his family on the 1st of May. The lady agreed to vacate the premises. On Tuesday the owner arrived with his furniture, but found a number of people collected in front of the house, engaged in animated discussion. There were at least fifteen cart loads of furniture before the door besides what had been unloaded on the sidewalk. The owner inquired the cause of the trouble, and found that the last tenant had let the house to fifteen different parties from whom she had collected from thirty to forty dollars each for a month's rent in advance.

The astonishment and rage of the victims who expected to move in the house knew no bounds, and had they got hold of the swindler she would have been roughly handled—but happily for her own safety, she had left for parts unknown.

DISEASE IN THE SOUTH. Surgeon Horner, of the Freedmen's Bureau, has received the March medical reports from his subordinate officers in charge of freedmen and refugees. It says:

The districts of South Catolina, Virginia, and North Carolina appear to be suffering most from disease. At present South Carolina reports the largest number of sick, a large proportion of which are small pox cases. Small pox has been gaining ground in most of the districts, particularly in the Carolinas and Louisiana. All of the Southern States have this disease to contend with, except Florida and Texas, in which States not a single case has been reported. It may be a fact worthy of remark that fewer cases of small pox occur in the Gulf States than in those on the eastern seaboard or those inland—Georgia being the only State in which the disease exists to any considerable extent.

The following totals show the number of cases and deaths during the month of March 14,902: refugees 534 Number died—freedmen, 661; refugees 16. Percentage of deaths—freedmen .044: refugees .03; while in the month of February the number of freedmen treated was 12,490; refugees 318. Number of deaths—freedmen 638; refugees 9. Percentage of deaths—freedmen .05; refugees .03.

—At Petersburg, Ga., on Monday night last, two churches belonging to the colored people were set on fire and consumed, and during the conflagration another was discovered on fire, but in time to save the building. The event has caused much excitement to the community. The Index says: From every quarter and from all classes, we have heard an unbroken comment of regret and indignation that there could have been found within the limits of Petersburg one heart so profligate and abandoned as to inflict this outrage on our colored people, and there is a disposition equally wide-spread to take every possible means to hunt down the author or authors of the crime. If the guilty parties imagine that they would find the faintest shadow of approval of their villainy in the sympathy of this community, they have been wofully deceived. In no part of Virginia, or of the South, does a better feeling exist between the whites and blacks.

WAS IT THE FIRST SCREW STEAMER?—A contributor to the Providence Journal relates the particulars of the building of a screw vessel at Providence sometime from 1807 to 1809. It was constructed by the ingenuity of Jonathan Nichols, blacksmith, a native of Vermont, and David Grieve, tailor, from Nantucket, and was about forty feet long, and worked by four horses. A small model boat had been before successfully worked. On 23th June, 1807, '8, or '9, the craft went to Pawtuxet with a party to attend a Masonic gathering, and a happy couple to be married at that place. The trip to Pawtuxet was made in about two hours, but on the return the vessel being destitute of a keel, drifted ashore in a thunder squall.

—The next session of the Maine Universalist Convention will be held in Auburn the last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in June, and not in Waterville, as many of the papers have it.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

—John A. Innis, a well known citizen of Salem, a prominent worker in the anti-slavery cause, died on Sunday. He was a native of Boston. At one time he was imprisoned in Baltimore under suspicion of being engaged in running away slaves, when he had gone to that vicinity to procure a free colored boy whose mother had become a resident of Salem. He also served on board a privateer during the war of of 1812-15.

—Patents were granted last week to Wm. B. Hall of New Gloucester, for improved cushion and gaurd for the feet of horses; Joshua B Stewart of South Paris, for improvement in hayforks; Moses H. Wiley of Bucksport, assignor to self, C. J. Colt and J. P Ames of same place, for improved mop.

—A babe which jumped from the arms of its nurse into the Ohio river at Louisville a few days since and was in danger of being swept over the falls, was rescued by a Newfoundland dog on board the steamer in which the child's mother was travelling.

—The Gloucester market has been entirely cleared of mackerel. About 3000 barrels have been sold during the past ten days. The demand for mackerel in New York has nearly cleared all the Eastern markets.

—Never purchase love or friendship by gifts, for when thus obtained they are lost as soon as you stop payment!

—The Bath banks have declared semi-annual dividends as follows: Sagadahoc National 7 per cent; Bath National 6 per cent; 1st National 5 per cent.

—The Sanitary Committee of the New York Board of Health have reported in favor of giving the homeopathic doctors a chance in the city hospitals, if the cholera comes.

A PRETTY THOUGHT.

The night is mother of the day,
The winter of the spring,
And ever upon old decay,
The greenest mosses cling.

Behind the cloud the starlight lurks,
Through showers the sunbeams fall,
For God who loveth all his works,
Has left his hope with all.

—The Portland Company's works have just completed another powerful freight locomotive. It is called the "Bonnybeag," after a mountain in Berwick, and will be placed on the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad.

Information about the Public Lands.

The Homestead act of 1862 authorizes any citizen, or one who has declared his intention of becoming a citizen, to enter a claim of one hundred and sixty acres of the public lands on payment of fee of ten dollars at the land office of the district. At the end of five years' continued residence and cultivation he or she will be entitled to a patent of title in fee simple from the United States. Proper terms are secured in case of a person's decease, provided the widow or heirs keep a continuous residence and cultivation. All unsold public lands that have been surveyed are open to entry under the Homestead act. Rights are also secured to soldiers. No such liberal arrangement is made in any other country for the settlement of their own poor, or for foreigners who come to live and be citizens.

With regard to the opportunities of obtaining unused public lands in any of the older states of the West it is difficult to obtain precise information without application at the land offices of the several districts, because lands are constantly taken up by settlement or purchase, or by location under land warrants—great numbers of which are bought and sold in market like other property. We give only some general statements.

In Illinois there are no unsold lands of the government. The Illinois Central Railroad Company own a million acres, which can be bought for from eight to twelve dollars per acre. In Iowa there are about four and a half million acres, chiefly in the northwestern quarter of the state, and west of the Des Moines river, mostly in the Sioux City land district. It is believed to be a very desirable region for settlers, as the wave of population reaches it, and especially with the promise that it will soon be traversed by railroads. In Wisconsin, the northern or lumber region is mostly open for settlement. Its heavy forests make it valuable for timber until cleared, and then for stock-raising. But it takes labor to make a beginning.

In the state of Missouri there are six millions of acres of unsold land, the prices of which is from $1,25 to $2,50 per acre. This vacant land is distributed principally in the following counties: Barry county, $354,000 acres; Benton, 110,000; Camden, 317,000; Christian, 197,000; Dallas, 135,000; Douglas, 400,000; Hickory, 90,000; Laclede, 190,000; Macdonald, 250,000; Newton, 167,000; Ozark, 472,000; Pulaski, 190,000; Stone, 280,000; Taney, 400,000; Texas, 150,000 Webster, 190,000; Wright, 280,000. There are two land offices in the state, one at Booneville, on the Missouri river, near the centre of the state, and the other at Ironton, on the St. Louis and Iron Mountain railroad.

In Minnesota the unsold land exists principally in the Northwestern portion of the state, the eastern and southern parts being pretty well taken up.

The state of Kansas is already extensively settled, the amount of occupied land comprising nearly one-half the territory. Nebraska contains a greater amount of unsold land than Kansas; except upon the eastern border, which is partly settled, the land is not taken to any considerable extent. Dakota territory contains a vast amount of vacant land, the greater proportion of it being very little settled. The same may be said of most of the western territorities, as Arizona, Utah and Washington.

THE INTERNAL REVENUE. We have received a copy of "Instructions to Assessors concerning the assessment of Incomes, Licenses," &c., for the current year. There has been sundry modifications of the rules observed in the last annual assessment; and we select and print those pertaining to incomes. The time for returning incomes expired on Monday:

Where no repairs have been made by the tax-payer upon any building owned by him during the preceding five years, nothing can be deducted for repairs made during the year for which income is estimated.

Rent of homestead actually paid may be deducted, but the rental value of property owned by the tax payer is not a subject of deduction. Any person claiming a deduction on account of expense for room rent must satisfy the assessor that the room or rooms occupied by him constitute his home and that he has no residence elsewhere, and this being shown he may be allowed to deduct what he actually pays for rent of such rooms. When rent is included and deducted as an expense of business, it must be again deducted as rent, nor should a person hiring a house and sub-letting a portion of it be allowed to deduct more than the excess of his payments over his receipts.

Gifts of money, when clearly not in the nature of payment for services rendered, or other valuable consideration, are not liable to taxation as income. Amounts received on life insurance policies, and damages recovered in actions of tort, are exempt from income tax.

If interest accrued during the year on notes, bonds, &c., is good and collectible at the end of the year, it should be returned as income whether actually collected or not.

The fact that income is devoted to the payment of debts does not release the same from liability to income tax.

Incomes of persons who died after December 31 are taxable, and should be returned by executors, administrators, and also all income which accrued in 1865 to persons who died within that year. Income which accrued from the estates of such person in 1865 after the date of decease should be returned by the heirs or other persons who received the benefit of the same.

All expenses for insurance upon property and all actual losses in business may be deducted from the Gross income of the year. But losses sustained after December 31, 1865, cannot reduce the income for the year.—Losses incurred in the prosecution of one kind of business may be deduced from gains in another, but not from those portions of income derived from fixed investments, such as bonds, mortgages, rents and the like. Assessors should also be careful not to allow the deduction of amounts claimed to have lost in business when in reality they should be regarded as investments or expenditures, as when merchants expend money in farming or gardening for recreation or adornment rather than pecuniary profit.

Dividends from which the tax of five per cent. has been withheld, should be returned as income, inclusive of the tax withheld, and after the total tax has been assessed, the amount of tax withheld may be deducted therefrom.

A recent case in New Orleans seems to settle the question as to the existence of martial law in Louisiana. An action was brought by one Tweed in the United States District Court to recover 500 bales of cotton from B. F. Flanders, Gouernment Cotton Agent, and a writ of sequestration was issued commanding the United States Marshal to take possession of the cotton pendente lite. But, at the request of Mr. Flanders, Gen. Canby resisted the service of this process, and retained the cotton as captured property belonging to the United States. Thereupon General Canby was required to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt in obstructing the execution of the writ of sequestration. The General was polite enough to go to court and explain matters, but declined to let go the cotton. He considered that he held it as he did the forts and munitions of war belonging to the United States. Judge Durell in these circumstances, declined to hold a court over which martial law was supreme, and in giving his decision says:

"When I first took my seat upon this bench, the country was engulfed in the cloud of civil war, and the loyal people engaged in putting down the great rebellion. Since that time a change has been wrought, and no more is the maxim inter arma silent leges applicable, but on the contrary the roll of the drum should no more be heard in the halls of justice. The pretense of a defense of Major General Canby is naught, he has opposed a mandate of the Court, and is guilty of contempt; and it has been my endeavor throughout my judicial occupation of this bench, to render to the army and navy all the assistance that was in my power, it is hard now to be deserted by that which should be my support and aid in the enforcement of the laws of the United States. I am unable to fine or imprison a Major General who has at his command the bayonets of an army, and could resist a judgment of this Court.—As to the conduct of B. F. Flanders, it is simply an aggravation of his previous action in this case.

And now, as I am unable to carry out the awe as I deem I should, I adjourn this Court until a time when the army shall have been removed, and I be able to imprison and punish as I judge is deserving in the premises.

The Autocrat of the Russias, with the lives and property of his subjects at his command; the Sultan of the Turkeys, with his oriental vassals, much less a Major General of a Republic like this, has not power such as has been sought to be enforced in this case by the military. No such power was found even with the commanders of the Roman Legion.

I therefore adjourn this court until next Saturday, when I will decide all cases pending now, when I will adjourn the Court indefinitely, until such time as I may have power to enforce the laws I am placed here to expound and execute."

A square issue is thus raised upon the question whether Louisiana shall do without courts or without Gen. Canby.

SALT IN LOUISIANA. On Petite Anse Island, in the southern part of Louisiana, there is a bed of rock salt covering over one hundred acres, which, during the late war, supplied nearly the whole of the trans-Mississippi district. Twenty-one million pounds were taken from it in three months. Yet it is reported that but a very small portion of the deposit has been cut away. Immediate steps are now taking to develop the mine.

—Last month Europe sent twenty thousand four hundred and seventy eight emigrants to New York.

An Invaluable Spring Medicine.

DR. J. W. POLAND'S

HUMOR DOCTOR.

This excellent medicinal remedy was first prepared by Dr. P. in 1847, and was then employed with great success in expelling humors from the blood: but in 1849, a medical friend, who was quite celebrated as a physician, specialed in the treatment of humors, suggested some important improvements, which were adopted, and which have made it (so the people say) the very best remedy for all kinds of humors known to "the faculty." This preparation is composed wholly of vegetables, among which are Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, Burdock, Noble Pine, Mandrake, Senna and Bloodroot. Suffice it to say the "Doctor" is used in hundreds of families as a general medicine. Unlike many other popular remedies, it is very grateful to the taste.

HOWE'S

Patent Port Closers.

THE undersigned begs leave to call the attention of Masters and Owners of vessels, to his improved method of fastening and closing the ports of vessels. By use of these the difficulties of the old method are entirely obviated. They are easy of application, impossible to get out of order, galvanized to avoid rust, and a sure and strong fastening—and will last as long as the vessel will. They can be applied in ten minutes, securing the port more perfectly than can be done by the usual method in one hour, and avoiding all casualties occasioned by rotting of rope, &c.

WASHINGTON, May 10.

Warrants of pardon were ordered by the President to-day to two citizens of Texas, two of Alabama, and one of Virginia. Orders were signed by the President directing pardons to be made out for 15 North Carolinians.

The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of Henry A. Smith as Collector of the Customs at New York.

The U. S. S. steamer Swatora has returned from an experimental cruise of 4 months in the West Indies, having been ordered hither by the Navy Department for practical instructions of 12 midshipmen of the last graduating class in engineering. Four of them were placed in charge of the deck.—The second squad had charge of the engines and its dependencies, and the third squad had charge of the fires, boilers, &c. Commander Jefferson, in his report, says they have acquired such proficiency in handling the engines, and knowledge of the causes of various difficulties met with in the management of quick-working engines, and the remedies to be applied, that it was rarely they had occasion to send for the engineer on nominal charge to advise them.

It appears from a communication from the Navy Department to the House, that there is not among the clerks any who were engaged in the rebellion. Since March 2d, 1865, when the resolution was passed that officers and sailors should have preference for appointments, no one has been appointed in the Navy Department who has not served either in the army or navy.

Authentic information has been received that the British government has notified the Cunard Company of the termination of their mail subsidy when the present contract expires, which is next year.

Treasury Department,
Treasurer's Office,
Washington, May 8, 1866.

Sir.—You are requested to render to the Treasurer of the United States, simultaneously with the transcription of accounts current, a statement showing the amount you have to the credit of each disbursing officer of the United States, arranged under the heads of War, Navy and Miscellaneous, giving the aggregate of each classification, and of all classifications, in figures.

The blank lists used for the return of internal revenue will answer for these reports.

These instructions are intended to intend- to supersede those of the Secretary on the same subject, issued under date of July 19, 1865, no returns of that description being now required by this office.

NEW YORK, May 10.

The Herald's Valparaiso correspondent says:

Certain highly important documents sent to the Chilian President by the Dictator of Peru have been forwarded by Gen. Kilpatrick to Washington, showing that some time ago a French stranger died suddenly in Lima, and that among his effects were found papers proving him to have been a French agent, coming with proposals to the Dictator of Peru, to make himself King or Emperor, promising aid in men and money from France under the Mexican fing, in other words, through Maximilian. This exposes a scheme between France and Spain to jump at all the small South American Republics.

England approves, but does not aid by men or money.

Thirty-Ninth Congress.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, May 10.

Senate.

Mr Nye continued remarks commenced yesterday, against the President's policy, and the punishment of traitors.

Mr Doolittle spoke in reply against the exercise of the spirit of unrelenting vengeance toward the Southern people. He asked Mr Nye how many he would have tried, and whether by military commission or a Court.

Mr Nye replied he would hang enough to make to make treason odious—to make good that assertion of the President.

Mr Doolittle—How many?

Mr Nye—Five or six. He would not have kept Jeff. Davis so long; he would have hung him in a hollow square of the Grand Union Armies, when they were mustered out here; now he supposed they would try him by law.

Mr Doolittle said the President was not responsible for the delay in the trial of Jeff. Davis. It was admitted that a court martial was not the proper tribunal, and the Judge of the proper court had refused, so far, to try him; as for the trial of Lee, it was known what General Grant's idea of such a thing is, so long as Lee obeyed the terms of his surrender.

Mr Dolittle said the charge that the President or his supporters were in favor of admitting rebels to the councils of the nation was an infamous falsehood;—the President and his friends in Congress only maintained that each house for itself was to judge of the qualifications of its members.

House.

The reconstruction amendment was taken up.

Mr Randal supported the measure.

Mr Strouse opposed it, not believing in plastering and patching the Constitution.

Mr Banks followed.

The debate was continued by Messrs Eckley and Beaman in support of the measure, and Mr Rogers against it.

Messrs. Dawes, Bingham and Stevens spoke in favor of the measure, the latter closing the debate. He considered the 3d section the vital portion of the joint resolution, which he would not give a snap of his finger for without it. He considered it even too lenient, and for himself he favored the exclusion of the rebels until the year 19,076, and then it would be too mild a punishment for them. If they are to come back, let them come back and ask forgiveness, and let us consider whom we shall forgive and whom exclude. He considered the penitentiary of hell the penitentiary they deserved until then.

Mr Stevens moved the previous question, which was ordered—90 to 59.

The main question was ordered—84 to 79.

The galleries were crowded, and the greatest interest and excitement was manifested by the members.

The House then voted on the passage of the joint resolution, which resulted as follows: Yeas 128, Nays 37.

The Speaker directed the Clerk to call his name as a member of the House, and the name of Schuyler Colfax being called he responded "Aye!"

The Speaker, in announcing the vote, said two-thirds of the voting was in the affirmative, and I declare the joint resolution passed.

The announcement was greeted with considerable jubilation in the hall, the members clapping their hands, but not indulging in more demonstrative movements. There was also a clapping of hands in the galleries, to which Mr Eldridge took exception, asking whether business of the House was to be disturbed by the people in the gallery.

Mr Rogers, on the other hand, seemed to have no objections to it, for he suggested that the colored people in the gallery should have leave to wave their handkerchiefs.

The Speaker, however, admonished members on the floor, as well as spectators in the galleries, that they must observe the rules of the House, and that neither applause or disapprobation should be manifested.

Mr Eldridge followed this up by saying, he did not want to be disturbed by "niggerheads" in the gallery.

The Speaker informed the member from Wisconsin that he must not insult the spectators in the galleries.

Harmonious relations were quickly restored, and the House proceeded to other business.

On motion of Mr Washburne of Ill., the evening session was dispensed with until further orders.

On motion of Mr Washburn it was agreed to adjourn from to-day until Monday, with a sort of tacit understanding that the vacation would be until Tuesday.

The Speaker presented communications from the Secretaries of the Interior and Navy Departments in reply to resolutions of the House, but which are of no general interest.

Mr Darling introduced a bill to refund and pay certain taxes on imported spirits.—Referred.

The Senate amendment to the House bill enforcing a duty on live animals was concurred in.

Mr. Spaulding introduced a bill to aid in the construction of telegraph lines to secure for postal, military and other purposes. Referred.

Mr Schenck obtained leave to have printed and referred to the Committee of the whole an amendment which he proposed to offer to the tax bill on the subject of cigars.

A resolution was adopted directing the committee on invalid pensions to inquire into the expediency of amending the pension laws to place dependant fathers on the same footing as mothers.

A resolution was adopted directing the commissioners of public buildings to communicate a list of his clerks specifying those if any who have been in the rebel army.

Mr Williams introduced a bill to authorize the employment of additional counsel in the cases of claims against the government.

Adjourned.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

—Sermon at Hammonn St. Church this evening by Rev. J. U. Parsons. Services to commence at 7½ o'clock.

—The only Copperhead paper in this Congressional District is interesting itself in the Union nominee for Congress, probably because the chances for a Copperhead are so small that the nomination isn't worth talking about. We can assure them that they will find either of the gentlemen whose names are mentioned in connection with that office, radical enough to do justice to traitors, should occasion require, and with heart enough in the work to do it cheerfully. Mr. Peters has been State Attorney two years, and has had considerable experience in reconstructing Rebels. Probably his experience will be useful to him now.

TERRIBLE MORTALITY. While looking at some elegant designs for marble work yesterday, at the establishment of S. P. Bradbury, Esq., on Harlow street, we noticed one grave stone showing the names of seven children who died between July 20th and August 1st, 1864, of diphtheria. Surely such an enemy is as much to be dreaded as war or Yamino.

HALF FARE. Persons attending the annual session of the East Maine Conference, which will be held at Waldoboro next week, will be transported on steamer Lady Lang at half fare.

CAPT. BICKFORD'S market is well supplied with Kennebec shad. The Captain expects in a day or two to invent a machine for boning shad, which will undoubtedly be exceedingly popular with housekeepers.

—Cholera and Bowel Complaint generally should at this time claim the attention of every citizen, and means for its prevention and cure. Some reliable remedy should be kept in every house, and by every traveller, and we know of no article that comes better recommended than Dr. Bicknell's Syrup, which has been well tested and found effectual in such cases; and if any judgment can be formed by a taste of the article, it is just the thing desired. It is certainly worthy of a trial.

GIOFFRAY'S RENOVATOR for the hair is one of the most popular articles ever brought to this market. It has none of the properties of a dye, but will surely and safely restore grey hair to its original color.

—In view of the near approach of the cholera, it behooves every family to purify their dwellings and out-buildings. Professor Bouve's Atmospheric Purifier, advertised in our columns, is, without doubt, just the article needed. It may be had of any druggist.

A Visit to Lisbon.

We were much gratified last week, upon a flying visit to Lisbon, to notice the substantial and perfect manner in which Mr. B. B Farnsworth of this city is building the paper mill now in the course of construction in that town. We give some little description of the building, as the stock is nearly all owned in this city.

The mill is situated on the Sabattus stream, which is the outlet of Sabattus Pond, and the supply of water is never failing, being sufficient for work the year round. The dam is permanently built and of ample head, and in the immediate vicinity is an inexhaustible spring which furnishes sufficient water for the process of manufacture.

The main building is of wood, one hundred and twenty feet long, with two wings for engines, one of which will be used for fine paper and the other for coarse. The front of the building is used for counting-rooms, &c., thus completely surrounding the yard, and all ingress or egress must be through the front gateway. A solid stone foundation has been prepared for the engines, and indeed every precaution seems to have been taken to make the structure solid and substantial.

Mr. Farnsworth has shown much wisdom in the plan of the work, as well as energy in executing it, and we believe that when completed it will be one of the best, if not the best paper mill in Maine, and that the owners will be amply repaid for the outlay.

SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHAN HOME. Friends of the Orphans of Soldiers and Sailors in Maine are respectfully urged to send contributions of money and other valuables, for the purpose of aiding the Maine Table in the National Fair, to be opened here on the 21st instant.

The object is excellent, and the Fair under the management of those who will be likely to make it a success.

As the time is short, it is hoped that those at home, who have a proper pride in their State, will forward contributions as promptly as possible to the Treasurer, A. C. Spalding, Room 26, Interior Department, Pension Office.

Adams' Express offers to send such contributions free of charge.

Signed by the Ex Committee of Maine citizens in Washington:

Will the ladies of Bangor respond?

—The papers in Boston are urging the necessity for a new hotel of greater magnitude than any now there. They declare that the interests of business demand that capitalists should take hold and put one through this season. It will probably be built.

Portland, notwithstanding she shows so much public spirit in other directions, remains the worst "hoteled" city in New England, not having one that has any claims to be first class. The Preble House, which perhaps ranks No. 1 in that city, isn't near as well kept as the Penobscot Exchange or Bangor House, and their prices are fifty per cent. higher. But then Bangor always had a high reputation for her public houses.

—Mrs. Johnson Hatch, of Wells, some years ago made a series of curious experiments to find out how long the germinating principle in corn would continue. She selected a sound ear of corn, and planted a few kernels of it every year for thirty years.—Every year for twenty-nine years the corn grew and flourished, but the thirtieth year it failed to sprout.

—The Age says that Juda Smith of Belfast, a maiden lady aged about 61 years, died suddenly in that city last week.

PHILO HERSEY, Esq., of Belfast, has been admitted to practice in all the Courts in this State.

—Gen. John C. Caldwell was admitted to practice in all the Courts of Maine last week.

—On Monday next, an evening train will be run from Portland to Boston, leaving at 6 o'clock. The boats on the inside route to Portland will undoubtedly connect with this train.

—The steamer John Brooks will take a place in the Portland Boston line as soon as she is refitted to meet the wants of the line.

STOLEN. A valuable horse was stolen from the stable of Samuel Abbott in Dexter on Sunday night last. On the same night a wagon and harness were stolen from Loring Mower of the same town.

—S. B. Cole is appointed route agent between Boston and South Berwick station, vice Joseph A. Rice removed. Pay $800 per annum.

—Two lads—one fourteen and the other seven years of age, sons of Mr. James Harmon of Elmira, New York—went in search of sweet Sicily root in the woods near the city a few days ago. By mistake they dug up and ate a quantity of Indian poke or white hellebore, a virulent poison, from the effects of which they died in a short time.

STORE BREAKING. The store of J. P. Churchill, Esq., of North New Portland was broken open on Friday night last, and a lot of goods, boots and some money stolen therefrom. We learn that two men by the name of Nichols have been arrested in Lexington and a part of the stolen property found upon them.—[Anson Advocate.

—The foreign trade of the port of Frankfort is quite brisk. Since January 1 there have been nine clearances, viz: Eight to the West Indies and one to South America, a value of cargoes about $40,000. In 1865, there were 27 cargoes shiped, viz: 15 to the West Indies, 6 to South America and 6 to the British Provinces; value about $160,000. The imports average about 12 cargoes per year, from all the West Indies, chiefly from Cuba.

An old gentleman named David Crockett, living in the town of Morrill, was suddenly missing from his home some ten days since. The family not being able to get any tidings from him, the whole neighborhood turned out to search, and he was found in the woods, having remained there nearly a week without food. He was taken home, and died a few days after. His age was 86 years. He was one of the first setters of that part of Belmont which is now Morrill, and was an industrious man and a good citizen.—[Age.

—The whole number of members in the British House of Commons is 658. On the passage of the Reform bill 636 members voted—the largest vote ever given in the House.

—It is asserted that during a recent storm in Wisconsin the lightning was seen to strike into the Lake in the vicinity of Madison, and masses of ice two feet in thickness were hurled hundreds of feet in the air, and the latent heat, set free by the change of vapor to liquid, was so great as to raise the temperature from below the freezing point to that in summer (72 degrees) and preserved it there for nearly 24 hours.

—John Randolph is said upon one occasion to have visited a race-course near the city of New York. A flash-looking stranger offered to bet him $500 upon the result of the race, and, introducing his companion said:—"Mr. Randolph, my friend here, Squire Tompkins, will hold the stakes."—"But, sir," squeaked the orator of the Roanoke, "who will hold Squire Tompkins after I give him my money."

—The Boston Post gives a good hit to Yankee enterprise. It says there is talk of forming a company of capitalists to equip a fleet of vessels to go in quest of drifting icebergs and tow them into Boston harbor. The enterprise could be made doubly remunerative by advertising to take out pleasure parties on the trip. Such a company should get out its cards and carts without further delay. Polar ice may be as good as any from the ponds near home.

—Mr. Ancona of Pennsylvania gave the only vote against the resolution congratulating the Czar on his escape from assassination, in the House. His position on the alphabetical list gave him the first democratic vote; finding the rest of the party did not follow his lead in approving the assassination of an emancipator, he asked permission at the end of the roll call to change his vote and a unanimous affirmative appears on the record.

—In August, 1864, George S. Peck of Providence made a bet of $1000 on the Presidential election, and put the stakes in the hands of John N. Parkis. A few days before the election he repented, and forbade Parkis paying the money to the winner.—The money wrs paid, and Peck has just recovered the amount in court from the stakeholder.

—The total of government funds on deposit in the Merchants' National Bank of Washington is now stated at $687,000, to most of which there are about $140,000 of securities. Net loss $547,000. It does not seem likely that the loss will be much reduced, the assets of the bank being nominal and the stockholders, who are liable to the amount of their stock, being mostly persons of no means.

—As an illustration of the amount of lumbering done in Michigan, it is said that Tittabawassee river, ranging from seven to ten rods in width, is filled with logs for ten miles; Chippewa river, from six to nine rods wide, is filled for seven miles; from Pine river, ranging from five to seven rods in width, is filled for eleven miles. And these streams water only a small portion of the State.

—The Tribune says of a recent autograph sale in New York, that the buyers appeared to have been guided entirely by the advice of the catalogue in their choice, without exactly knowing whether their acquisitions were of large or small value. "It is undeniable that well-written autographs bring the most money—a fact which the great men who will hereafter supply the American market ought to be bear in mind."

—The Bolivar (Tenn.) Bulletin thinks that in that region there will be put in cultivation this year at least double the quantity of land that was tilled in 1865. Many of the large fields that have only served as pastures for the past three or four years are now being put in condition suitable for all planting purposes.

—The Galveston (Texas) News reports that there is anything but good feeling existing between the white and colored troops now in that city, and it would require but a slight event to create a serious collision between the two.

—A private letter from Los Angelos, California, says that a petroleum well has been recently opened there, and the yield of oil is fifteen barrels a day. The oil was reached at a depth of 280 feet.

—The United States Consul at Liverpool on the 26th ultimo took formal possession of the Tallahassee in the name of the American government, on the terms of the decision of the British Court of Admiralty.

—A terrible hail storm recently swept over Brandon county, Mississippi, stripping the trees of their foliage and doing other damage. It is said that the hail stones were seven or eight inches in circumference.

—The Emperor of Russia has sent a special commissioner to this country to investigate the working of our internal revenue laws, and especially the tax on incomes.

The National Express Company, of which the rebel Gen. Joe Johnston is President, which was to have monopolized the express business of the country, has had to make another call on its stockholders for $5 a share to defray expenses.—[Boston Journal.

It is stated that the avowed objection of Chief Justice Chase to presiding at the trial of Jefferson Davis at Norfolk will be removed by an order from Sec'y Stanton to Gen. Terry, commanding the Department of Virginia, instructing him that the peace proclamation entirely dispenses with martial law in that State.

The Board of Excise in New York has decided that all clubs must take out license as retail dealers in wines and liquors. Great indignation is therefore excited in certain social, literary and political circles. The members contend that the wines and liquors are as much private property as if they were contained in the cellar of any individual gentleman.

"DON'T BELONG TO OUR SET." The good people of Panola county, Miss., are in the habit of giving parties, and the ladies are much troubled with the question of what is to be done in the case of ex-federal officers and soldiers living in that section. The agitation has reached the papers, and the variety of opinions are amusing. One lady, writing to the Star, settles the matter with Spartan brevity—"Southern ladies, receive them not."

WARNED IN A DREAM.

BY AMY RANDOLPH.

(Concluded.)

The orange twilight was reddening the distant hill tops with its glimmer, and across the snowy fields the young moon threw its line of tremulous silver. It was a lovely spot—the dnese glen of pines through which they were shooting at lightning speed—and now the solemn evergreens were far behind, and they rattled along the brow of a yawning ravine, with a wild stream brawling over jagged rocks at its centre.

Hark! what was that terrific jar? Marvyn turned in vague horror, with an impulse to fly he knew not whither, as the cars rocked and trembled an instant, and then—

A crash like the bursting of some angry thunder cloud—an upward column of fiery smoke from the shattered engine, and the cars lay a splintered, dismembered mass along the ravine, the snow crimsoned with dreadful stains, the misty crests of the peaceful corpses echoing with shrieks of mortal agony!

Ah, when we read the newspaper accounts of 'dreadful railroad accidents,' we little know how far the awful reality exceeds the power of reporter's pen or artist's tablets!

How long Jasper Marvyn lay senseless on the bank, the clear stream rippling past him in cold gushes of foam, he did not know; but when his eyes opened again, the purple heights of the wood were yet distinctly outlined against the sky, and the rosy shadows of twilight had not faded. But oh! the chaos of shrieks and groans—the awful sounds of death that rose up around him!

Sick and giddy, he dragged himself to his feet as recollection returned to him, and tottered along the scene of ruin and desolation, pale as a risen ghost.

'Jasper! Jasper! for the love of Heaven, aid me!'

It was the voice of Frederick Revere. He lay in a sort of rift of the rocks, living and apparently unharmed; but the heavy beams of a shattered freight car had become wedged above him in such a manner that he could not free himself, while from the heights a mass of splintered wood and iron swang to and fro, kept from crushing downward only by the branches of a gnarled old pine.

There he lay, with certain death suspended over him, for the roots of the pine were momentarily giving way—pale, yet collected, appealing for aid to him—to him of all men in the world!

Jasper set his teeth firmly together, with a glare of mortal hatred in his eye. Why had not the death-trap swallowed up his rival ere he had come by. Could he lift his hand to restore the boon of life to Ethel's bridegroom? Once safely buried in the ruins, and Ethel would be free—and who know what might happen, or who might yet call her wife!'

'Jasper; do you not hear me call? It is your old friend, Frederic Revere. Do not leave me here to perish!'

The voice was fainter now—the old pine rocked and groaned fearfully under the swaying weight.

'One movement, and I might have that impending death upon him,' thought Jasper, with demoniac coolness of purpose. 'But I will not—that would be murder. I will pass on and leave him to his fate.'

As he crept stealthily by, there was a heavy crash, and the shadow of the old pine was gone from the rock!

He never dared to look back, but sought eagerly in the desolate confusion of dead and dying for Ethel.

'Ethel! Ethel Wynne!'

A slight figure raised itself from a sunken stone beside the stream, and stood in an attitude of intense attention.

'Fred—is it you, dearest? Here—I am not hurt, darling, only my arm is a little bruised. I have sought everywhere for you!'

'It is not your husband, Ethel—it is I, Jasper Marvyn.'

'And Frederic—where is he?' gasped the bride of an hour.

'Ethel——'

He could not speak farther—she had deciphered the terrible truth in his voice, and had fainted.

It was strange—the human heart is a volume of mysteries; but at that moment, when he first realized that Ethel's heart was dead to all but her young husband, he would have given uncounted worlds, had they been his, to restore that husband to her arms.

Back again in the pine, uncertain moonlight he hurried—it might be that a spark of vitality yet flickered in the frail socket! He would have yielded up his own life freely to know that it was so; and with throbbing pulses he approached the lonely spot and struggled through the trailing branches of the overthrown pine tree.

For a moment a lingering hope burned high in his breast, but it was only until the dead face met his view—the calm, dead face that never more would turn a reproachful glance towards the man who had wrought its doom! He was too late—no need of his aiding hand now!

How weirdly the hills echoed back his great and exceeding bitter cry as he sank down beside the peaceful dead man, remembering the countless tender offices that cold hand had rendered him—the patience, the long suffering, the love which no rebuff could alienate, which Revere had ever borne towards him.

'God forgive me!' he groaned, 'for I am this just man's murderer—his murderer as surely as if I had stuck a knife to his heart! Would to Heaven that I were lying dead instead of thee, my friend, my friend!'

And as the melancholy wail died amid the recesses of the snowy hills, he knew the full bitterness of heart that made Cain's punishment greater than he could bear. The wild fastness eddied around him like the whirling visions of a dream, and he sank into blessed insensibility.

When he awoke he was sitting before the fervid glow of his fire, the chandelier burning above, and the crimson curtains reflecting the genial brightness of both fire and gas; And what was more, there was a merry tattoo being played on the panels of the door by a very energetic pair of knuckles; and while he was rubbing his eyes and looking about for the wild moonlight ravine, Fred Revere burst into the room for the second time that night.

'Upon my word, Jasper, I should think all the somnolence of the Seven Sleepers had settled upon you!' ejaculated that young man merrily. 'Do you generally take your naps after this fashion!'

'Where—where is Ethel, and what has become of the railroad accident?' stammered Marvyn, wildly.

'Ethel? I suppose the dear little thing is safe in Melcroft, in a whirlpool of dressmakers; and as for a railroad accident, I havn't heard of any,' said Revere, laughing.

'O, I understand now—I have been dreaming,' said Marvyn. 'Give me your hand, Fred, and let me congratulate from the bottom of my heart on your approaching happiness.'

Fred Revere never knew why Jasper Marvyn grasped his hand so warmly on that particular occasion, but he was gratified nevertheless.

'And you'll be ready to go down with me to Melcroft to-morrow evening, Jasper? That is what I came to ask,' said he. 'Five o'clock is the latest train.'

'Of course I'll be ready,' said Jasper.

And the lovliest set of dimonds in Mrs. Fred Revere's bridal presents was the offering of Jasper Marvyn; who kissed the bride without an atom of jealousy. He did go on the wedding tour with them, and there was not a railroad accident; and now he is godpapa to Ethel's first baby!

But he never forgot the dream which had taught him the most impressive lesson of his life.

CONSTITUTION

LIFE SYRUP.

A positive and specific remedy for all disease originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

L

STRUMA, GLANDULAR SWELLINGS;
ULCERATION, KING'S EVIL,
ERYSIPELAS, SALT RHEUM

This taint (HEREDITARY and ACQUIRED,) filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

RHEUMATISM.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of twenty or thirty years standing have been cured.

I

NERVOUSNESS.

Nervous Debility, Shattered Nerves,
St. Vitus' Dance, Loss of Power,
Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering women will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfills more than in promise.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.

Salivation, Rotting of Bones,
Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones,
Feeling of Weakness. Depression of Spirits.

F

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases, of the Skin like

and all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

E

CURES ALL SWELLING OF THE GLANDS,

Either of the Face, Neck, or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking, and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

S

All scrofulous persons suffering from general Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia and Dropsey of the limbs, abdomen, and in the female, Dropsey of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort.

Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body, will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife, or operations of any kind.

Y

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Diseases of the Heart, as palpitation, Disease of the Valves, producing a grating or filing sound, Dropsey of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ (persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart), will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

BROKEN DOWN AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS SUFFERING FROM INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, PAIN IN THE BACK, LOSS OF MEMORY, FOREBODINGS, HORROR OF CALAMITY, FEAR OF DISEASE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DRY, HOT SKIN AND EXTREMITIES, WANT OF SLEEP, RESTLESSNESS, PALE, HAGGARD COUNTENANCE, AND LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

R

FOR ALL FORMS OF

Ulcerative Diseases,

Either of the NOSE, THROAT, TONGUE, SPINE, FOREHEAD or SCALP, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTH PATCHES upon the female face depending upon the diseased action of the liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP, will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.

In the diseases of the Liver, giving rise to Languor, Dizziness, Indigestion, Weak Stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, will be relieved by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

U

THE RICH AND POOR

are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science has made the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP for the benefit of all.

PURE BLOOD

Produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death is the result.

NICHOLS HOUSE.

The undersigned having leased, for a long term, and thoroughly renovated and refitted the NICHOLS HOUSE (late "Dwinel House") in Bangor, has this day re-opened the same to the public accommodation.

This Hotel is centrally located, and in close proximity with the Boats and Cars.

The Proprietor has had a long experience in the "Parker House," of East Corinth, and the "Shaw House," of Newport, and flatters himself that to all patrons he will furnish an agreeable and comfortable home. Every effort and expense will be used to make this House as popular and attractive as any in this section of the State. Having lately purchased the large and enterprising

Livery Establishment

Lately owned by CALEB BILLINGS, Esq., the same will be carried on in all its departments in connection with said Hotel. The undersigned will be ready to furnish teams of all descriptions, and will extend all accommodations to those who may favor him with their calls.

☞ Coaches in readiness for any business at all hours.

Stages leave this House daily for all parts of the country.

☞ Orders may be left at the House, or at the Stable office, where a reliable man will hereafter be found to attend upon the wants of customers.

DODD'S NERVINE,

This article surpasses all known preparations for the Cure of all forms of Nervousness.

It is rapidly superseding all preparations of Opium and Valerian—the well-known result of which is to produce Costiveness and other serious difficulties—as it allays Irritation, Restlessness, and Spasms, and induces regular action of the bowels and secretive organs.

No preparation for Nervous Diseases ever sold so readily, or met with such universal approval. For Fits, Sleeplessness, Loss of energy, Peculiar Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, and all the fearful mental and bodily symptoms that follow in the train of nervous diseases, Dodd's Nervine is the best remedy known to science. American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

No. 78 State Street, (opposite Kilby street,) Boston.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS; everyone of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

DR. LAROOKAH'S

Sarsaparilla Compound,

For the Speedy and Permanent Cure of Liver Complaints, Scrofula or King's Evil, Eruptions, and all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches and Boils; Rheumatic and Neuralgic Pains in the Bones, Side and Head; for the various Weaknesses to which Females are liable; Dyspepsia, Debility, Emaciation, Dropsy, and all disorders resulting from or in an impure state of the Blood.

IT is invaluable to Nervous Sufferers, and a positive cure for Palsy arising from the abuse of Mercury or Lead.

It is a Tonic as well as an Alterative, and a sure protection from attacks that originate in change of climate, season or life.

LIVER COMPLAINTS and their combined symptoms, such as Lumbago, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Bilious Eruptions, &c. When caused by Scrofula taint, this compound is a most effectual remedy.

DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, is often caused by Scrofula, which deranges the stomach, and renders it unhealthy. Indigestion is not always caused by Scrofula, when it is, this Sarsaparilla Compound is a ready cure.

NEURALGIA, HEADACHE and various disorders of the nervous system frequently arise from a low state of the constitutional health, and are much relieved and often cured by this powerful remedy.

ERYSIPELAS, Boils, Tumors, or Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Sores, &c. Moderate doses three times a day will usually effect the cure of the above complaints, but often requires considerable time.

Price one dollar per bottle. Six bottles for five dollars.

DR. LAROOKAH'S

ALL-CONQUERING

INDIAN VEGETABLE PULMONIC SYRUP,

A Sovereign Remedy for Coughs Colds, Bronchitis Consumption, and all diseases of the Throat & Lungs.

Unsurpassed by any Medical Discovery in the World. DR. E. R. KNIGHTS, Proprietor, Melrose, Mass.

Price 50 Cents and $1.00 per Bottle.

DR. KNIGHTS'

Oriental Hair Restorer.

After a long series of experiments, this article, as it is now offered to the public, is believed to be the most perfect of its kind which science has ever devised. No pains have been spared to produce what has so long been demanded by thousands, who, from sickness or other causes, have become prematurely grey; and others, who, in the sere and yellow leaf of life, would retain, as far as possible, the semblance of youth. DR. KNIGHTS' ORIENTAL HAIR RESTORER, after a few applications, restores grey or faded hair to its original color, and is the only preparation of the kind upon which the public can place any reliance. It has never been known to fail in a single instance, and is totally unlike the thousand and one so-called Hair Restorers, by which so many have been egregiously deceived.

It is delightfully perfumed, gives the hair a rich and glossy appearance, promotes its luxuriant growth, and will not soil the skin, scalp, or any article of apparel.
